A. POLICY STATEMENT FOR USE OF THE LODGING TAX.

The Lodging Tax Fund will be the primary source of City funding for tourism promotion. The City will not make any multi-year commitments with lodging tax funds. The City intends to maintain a reserve in the fund and will assess (on an annual basis) how much of the fund should be appropriated in any given year. The revenues from the City’s lodging tax may be used for the following purposes:
1. All proposals must demonstrate that requested funds are for expanded tourist related activities and not simply to replace existing funding.
2. The promotion of emerging or ongoing tourism events, facilities and activities by governmental or non-profit agencies so as to attract tourists to this community.
3. Payment for all or any part of the cost of local tourism promotion(s).
4. Funding of multi-jurisdictional tourism related activities.

B. DEFINITIONS: For purposes of this policy, the following definitions shall apply:
1. Underwriting: To endorse or to assume financial responsibility for (i.e. underwrite a concert); to sign (i.e. an insurance policy) so as to assume liability in case of specified losses; to insure; to insure against losses.
2. Promotions: Any act of promoting by advancement or through encouragement; Advertising, publicity, and public relations action associated therewith. Promotions does not include underwriting in any services.
3. Advertising: Use of funds for out of county advertising, designed to promote out of area participation by advertising the applicant’s events. Permitted advertising includes brochure production, newspaper advertising, magazine advertising, radio advertising, or similar types of advertising directed at out-of-area consumers.

C. ELIGIBLE GRANT CATEGORIES.
1. General Tourism Promotion. This category will provide funds to promote, publicize, support and/or expand tourism promotion programs in the general area of La Junta. This could include (but is not limited to) such programs as producing a marketing brochure highlighting the community’s unique tourist features and the implementation of certain elements of the community. Proposals must demonstrate that requested funds are for expanded tourist related elements and not simply to replace existing funding. Except as to permitted advertising requests, proposals similar in scope to previously submitted award proposals shall not be considered.
2. Special Events/Festivals. This category will provide funds to projects that promote, support, and expand existing and new special events/festivals. These special events/festivals, either existing or new, must be open to the public and have a clear goal of attracting tourists to the City. Proposals for existing special events/festivals must demonstrate that requested funds are for expanded tourist related elements and not simply to replace existing funding.
3. Administration Expenses Recoupment. To cover the costs of administration in the collection of the lodging tax and other administrative matters related thereto, the City shall retain 3% of the gross total sums received by the implementation of the lodging tax. The City administration recovery shall be realized and transferred to the City general fund in January of each year (after the preceding December sales tax returns have been filed and the collected taxes deposited with the City).
II.

A. PURPOSE.
The goal of this grant is to help build La Junta as a destination for visitors by generating incremental sales tax revenue through tourism, events and related activities. Grants are funded with revenue received through the City’s Lodging Tax Revenues.

B. REQUIREMENTS TO APPLY.
1. Programs must yield increases in tourism activity.
2. Programs must demonstrate a need for the use of public funds
3. All events must be open to the public.

C. APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS.
1. In order to apply for funds, the applicant must complete the attached application and submit it to the Director of Tourism via email LajuntaEvents@gmail.com or via the City Manager’s office.

H. PRIORITIES FOR APPLICATION CONSIDERATION
The City of La Junta has adopted a priority for the manner in which Lodging Tax funds will be spent, thus priority scoring weight is awarded to projects that:

   1. Generate overnight stays in La Junta lodging facilities.
   2. Promote incremental visitation to the community.
   3. Bolstering La Junta’s retail districts.
   4. Positively promote the City of La Junta in regional and national media outlets.
   5. Seek multiple sources of support.
   6. Help create La Junta as a tourist destination by out-of-town spectators, visitors or the like.
   7. Are unique to La Junta and surrounding area.

I. FUNDING RULES:
   1. Projects meeting all of these priorities are not guaranteed to receive money.
   2. Grants are one-time only expenditures.
   3. Grants do not automatically recur under any circumstance.
   4. Unless specifically deferred by the Tourism Advisory Board for further consideration, any application which is approved or rejected shall not be resubmitted in that same calendar year.
   5. Except as to permitted advertising applications, similar substance-related applications may not be submitted by any applicant within the same calendar year.
   6. Except as to permitted advertising applications, similar substance-related applications may not be submitted by any applicant in any succeeding years.
   7. Decisions on prior applications submitted to the Tourism Advisory Board or the Council are not binding as to any future application submitted by any applicant.
   8. The Tourism Board may, on its own volition, reduce the requested award for any otherwise qualified application.
   9. No grant application may exceed $500.00 in total funding, except only in those cases where the Tourism Board expenses requests a waiver of this requirement in conjunction with Paragraph 13 below, which must be approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the City Council.
   10. Permitted advertising may be submitted for three successive years. The maximum grant award in year one is $500.00, in year two is $300.00 and in year three is $100.00.
   11. The permitted advertising limitations shall not apply to those advertising activities specifically sponsored by the Tourism Board, such as billboards, AAA advertising, Visitor Center, Southeast Tour Guides, regional magazines, national magazines, internet sites or social media.
   12. As an exception to Paragraph 9 or 11 of this Section, if applicant provides program modifications that are implemented to attract attendees that will utilize local lodging facilities, the Tourism Board may make recommendations pursuant to Paragraph 13 below.
   13. Report to Council any recommendations (by the Tourism Board) which seek to fund an event where the funding request is similar to a past award MUST contain an explanation of why the application differs from prior applications so as to be considered by the Council, which must be approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the City Council.
